DEAR ART AFFICIANADOS:

I have a visionary quest. A desire to have people see the world as I see it. So I use paint and bronze as my tools to recreate a little of what I've seen and experienced throughout my long life and extensive travels/travails.

"Spectrum" developed in a magical way. I first drew an anatomical figure and then surrounded it with various pieces of collage and transfers. The collage process was a step by step, trial and error of putting different scraps of pictures of scenes and people, etc. surrounding the main figure until it pleased my eye. I finalized the collage with a hand made steel frame which suited the entire feeling. This piece has always been an "attention getter", and is one of my favorite creations.
