DEAR ART AFFICIANADOS:

Making art is a wonderful process. It employs concentration, thought, skill and a lot of luck. But that's only one step in the production of art. Someone has to see it, and hopefully applaud so that the artist knows his efforts were not in vain.

Usually art is seen in a gallery atmosphere, or on display in an open air art show. But lately with new technology, there are flashing billboards across the U.S. showing art; and they are showing my art!

Every 60 seconds the picture changes and shows art by various artists. Here is a list of places the flashing billboards can be seen. So if you're driving along and you notice billboards showing intriguing paintings don't crash the car; just enjoy the quick glimpse.

Here is a list of cities with the art-flashing billboards.

- Chicago, IL - 4 weeks of art interspersed among advertising at East Bound Interstate 90 just after the highway crosses over Oakton St.
- Reading, PA - from 12 A.M. to 11:59 P.M. - 24 hours of continuous art at Route 222 & Kutztown Rd., Temple, Pa.
- New Orleans, LA - 10/22/11 - 11/18/11 - Four weeks of art at Pontchartrin Expressway, east bound, just after South Claiborne Ave.
- Baton Rouge, LA - 24 hours of continuous art at 8558 Goodwood Blvd., at Tara Blvd.
- San Bernardino, CA - 24 hours of continuous art between I-15 and Compton Ave., south of Old Temescal Rd., next to the Spring Hill Suites, Corona, Riverside.
- also Duluth, MN...Savannah, GA...Nashville, TN and Richmond, VA

ARTIST'S STATEMENT

*I create art because I must.
 It is a necessary extension of my life.
 It identifies and substantiates my existence.
 It is my profile and my legacy.
 I want to intrigue and entertain.
 I want to initiate wonder and questions.
 I want to communicate my thoughts, dreams and desires.
 Most of all, I want to be. - lone Citrin*
