

"HOW ART THOU?"

DEAR ART AFFICIANADOS:

"TEHRAN "

Oil on Canvas
36 "H x 24"W

With the Middle East constantly in the news, I find myself constantly thinking about that volatile area of the world. It seems to be in a "forever turmoil" mode, fraught with constant danger and uncertainty.

Many years ago I had the pleasure of visiting Tehran and driving to the various historical points of interest . The Shah was still in power then, and there was no hint of change or danger. I had a marvelous time, and still think of all the sites and tastes of this region. It bothers me when I am bombarded with all the current publicity about this volatile area of the world. I follow it with great interest and worry about what the future holds for these countries.

Consequently, I took my brush and paints in hand, and created the painting shown above. It was created with random visions and strokes of the brush. An abstracted memory of this exotic land.

I have some other paintings of this area. They can be found on my website, www.artbyione.com. Look in the Figure/Portrait gallery the Mixed Media and the Landscape galleries on my website. There you will find my exotic memories of the middle east.

In the meantime, here is where I've been showing my art:

It is a necessary extension of my life.
It identifies and substantiates my existence.
It is my profile and my legacy.
I want to intrigue and entertain.
I want to initiate wonder and questions.
I want to communicate my thoughts, dreams and desires.
Most of all, I want to be. - lone Citrin*
