

"HOW ART THOU?"

DEAR ART AFFICIANADOS:

" NAPPIN' "

Pastel
22 "H x 31"W

This piece came from my wastebasket, which was filled with "throw-away" stuff. Trash to be exact. I had started a portrait in pastel on a large piece of wonderfully sanded paper; but the piece wasn't working for me. It became tedious. Not interesting. Not fun. Pedantic. So, not wanting to belabor this effort, I whipped the paper off my easel and tossed it into a large trash bin. I don't empty this particular trash bin often, so many weeks later I decided to dump the contents for the garbage truck to pick up and send it to "neverland". That's when I pulled the "failed attempt" out and gave it another "look-see". "Gee whiz...this has possibilities" I thought aloud. So, instead I trudged back into my studio and placed it back on the easel for another "go-round". After weeks of "playing around" with the piece; "Nappin'" evolved. I guess you could say "I work off my gut emotions. Just as I write this newsletter, "off my guts". Do you work the same way?

While you ponder this "earth-shaking" question, here is where I'm currently showing my art.

"When the dreamer dies, what happens to the dream?"
Age-old question asked by many, answered by few.

THANK YOU

*I create art because I must.
It is a necessary extension of my life.
It identifies and substantiates my existence.
It is my profile and my legacy.
I want to intrigue and entertain.
I want to initiate wonder and questions.
I want to communicate my thoughts, dreams and desires.
Most of all, I want to be. - lone Citrin*
